"Pursuant to an order of Council, hereunto annexed, I am, though the channel of your Gazette, to inform the officers and soldiers of the first Virginia Regiment (those of them I mean who embarked in the service of this colony before the battle of the Meadows in the year 1754) that all the claims which had been presented to me, properly attested, for land under Governor Dinwiddie's proclanation of the 19th of February, 1754, were laid before his Excellency Lord Dunmore, and the Council, on the 31st of October, 1771; who thereupon resolved, that each officer should share agreeable to the rank he entered upon the campaign in and that:

	Acres
Each field officer should be allowed	15,000
Each Captain	9,000
Each subaltern	6,000
Each Cadet	2,500
Each serjeant	600
Each corporal	500
Each private soldier	400

And were pleased moreover to determine that the quantity of 30,000 acres should be set apart for the purpose of answering any claims which might thereafter come in, and for recompensing those who had been, and were like to be, put to any extraordinary expence or trouble in conducting this business.

That about the first of last month Capt. William Crawford, who has been legally appointed to survey these lands, produced certificates for 127,899 acres, which he had surveyed in the following tracts, viz. 51,302, 23,622, 13,532, 10,990, 4,395, 2,448, 2,314, 4,149, 2,084, 1,525, 4,232, 1,374, 927—127,899 acres.

And these surveys being laid before the Council Board on the 6th of the month (November) and it then appearing that some of the principal claimants had contributed nothing, and some but partially towards the several advances which had been noted at the different meetings for the purpose of defraying the expense of exploring, surveying, and other incident charges accruing on these lands, whilst others again had been run to considerable cost and trouble on these accounts, it was thought reasonable and just that everyone (the common soldier excepted, who have their full complement allowed) should receive out of these first surveys in proportion to their advances, leaving those who are deficient in part, or the whole, to be supplied with their respective quantities of land out of the next surveys which are made, towards the completion of which the surveyor has been directed to proceed with all possible dispatch.

Agreeable to these sentiments, on the aforesaid 6th of November it was ordered, that the survey of 51,302 acres should be immediately patented in the names of George Muse, Adam Stephen, Andrew Lewis, Peter Hog, John West, John Palson and Andrew Wagener. Whereof, by a regulation approved of in Council,

That the survey of 927 acres should be immediately patented in the name of George Muse, which, added to his allowance of 9,073 acres as above, and sale of 5,000 as below, compleats his claim of 15,000 acres.

And the shares of such of them as are dead, or "have assigned, are to go to those who represent" them, and it is further ordered that the said patents "issue without rights, and with a reservation of quit" rents from the feast of St. Michael, which shall be "next after 15 years from the "date thereof respectively, accord- "ing to the said proclamation; Col. "Washington, engages, that if, at the "intended meeting of the several "claimants at Fredericksburg (the "23d of November next) or in any "reasonable time after (which by a "subsequent order of Council, bear- "ing date the 9th of December in- "stant, is limited to the last of the "Oyer and Terminer in June next) "the above distribution shall be com- "plained of as unequal, and, upon a "representation to the Board, it "should appear to be so, he will give "up all his interest under his patents, "and submit to such regulations as "the Board may think fit to pre- "scribe."

AT A COUNCIL HELD DEC. 9, 1772.

"The clerk was directed to inform "Col. Washington that it would be "agreeable to the Board if he would, "in the Virginia Gazette, or in some "other public manner, advertise the "several persons concerned of the "orders made in their favour."

This I have here attempted to do in the fullest and plainest manner I am capable of. It remains, however, to be observed that, as his Excellency and their Honours thought proper to adopt this method of having the land surveyed, rather than permit each claimant, after the proportions were settled, to locate and survey his own particular quantity separately, it was found, after repeated trials, difficult, if not impracticable, to associate different claims in the same patent, so as to make the total amount of them correspond with the quantity of the survey on the one hand, or the several surveys nearer to the amount of the claim on the other, than they now do; and there being a necessity of having recourse to both expedients in order to the distribution, I could not help wishing (as I was desirous of proceeding to the immediate cultivation of my portion) to be classed among the latter; which, if considered as an indulgence, it is an indulgence I conceive myself in some degree entitled to, as I have already experienced much trouble, and felt many expences, peculiar to myself.

The necessity of a division, in order to cultivate and improvement, is a measure too obviously necessary to remind the officers of; but it may not be amiss to hint it to the soldiery, and, at the same time, to add (to prevent any unnecessary application and journies, which cannot fail being attended with loss of time and expence to themselves) that I have now nothing more to do with their land: It behooves them, therefore, to fall upon the most eligible method of obtaining a speedy partition of the tract appropriated to their use, to the end it may be settled; and I can think of none more likely than a few of the most interested & intelligent to call a meeting of the whole, and cloath some person, with proper authority to effect this work. In issuing this notice it should be recollected that the several patents are very much dispersed & that a sudden notice be improper. It is necessary also to inform them that its surveyor's fee & office fees are yet due from these for this tract. I am sir your humble servant,

GEO. WASHINGTON."

MOVEMENTS OF SWISS EMIGRANTS IN THE AMERICAN COLONIES.

The following important letter from Dr. William J. Hinke, gives his careful translation of the reproduction of the original record of the only movement of Swiss emigrants along the Atlantic coast, as thus far discovered, and as presented in pages 12, 14, and 101, Lists of Swiss Emigrants in the Eighteenth Century to the American Colonies, Vol. 1, Faust:

"Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 26, 1920.

"My dear Dr. Brumbaugh:

Let me thank you heartily for the volume of Prof. Faust on Swiss Emigrants. Its content is as important as its make-up is beautiful. It is really gotten up in a fine style. The lists of emigrants will no doubt prove of great interest to many Swiss families in America, and will help them materially to trace their descent to Switzerland.

The reproductions of the subscribers to the Oath of allegiance, which you give, again show how unreliable the transcript of the names in the Minutes of the Provincial Council is. To show you the remarkable difference I will give you what I regard a correct transcript of the list facing p. 101:

Bucher, Hans,
Wenger, Lazarus,
Kolle(r), Hans, H R
Brenholtz, Christian, B R
Binglij, Hans Michel, H
Zeralbin, Christian,
Lowenborg, Hans,
Mausslin, Abraham,

Weber, Christian,
Willerich, Uhlerich,
Etter, Johannes,
Naas, Jacob Wilhelm,

Bucher, Hans.

Now if you will turn to Rupp's Thirty Thousand Names, p. 100, you will find most of the names correctly given, except Zwaller, Yilia, Ludenborg, Naath. What a boon it would be to have Pennsylvania publish all by the photostat. Then we would have a much better chance to identify emigrants.

Your Genealogical Society is doing a fine work in making these records accessible to students. Let me congratulate you upon the splendid way you begin your publications. * * *

Very truly yours,
(Signed) WM. J. HINKE.

BOYER, BAYER, BEYER, BEIER, BAIER,—PA. RECORDS.

*By Michael Alvin Gruber, A. M., Washington, D. C.

In the old burial ground of the Little Tulpehocken Church, about one and a half miles southwestward of Bernville, Berks County, Pa., an old sandstone has the following information:

Andreas Beyer, born Feb. 2, 1710, at Ebstein, Chur-Pfaltz; died May 27, 1768; 6 sons & 4 daughters.

In the old record of that church are recorded the dates of birth and of baptism, with names of sponsors, of 6 sons and 2 daughters of Andreas Beyer as follows:

John Jacob, born March 2, 1731; bap. June 3, 1731; sponsors were John Jacob Schaeffer and Sybilla Kobel.

Elizabeth, born March 28, 1733; bap. April 2, 1733; sponsors were John von Hasch and wife.

Samuel, born April 27, 1737; bap. July 25, 1737; sponsors were John von Hasch and wife.

John, born Feb. 2, 1740; bap. March 23, 1740; sponsors were John von Hasch and wife.

John Peter, born Oct 27, 1742; bap. May 22, 1743; sponsors were John von Hasch and wife.

The two daughters not mentioned in that record were:

Ann Engle, wife of Frantz (Francis) Umbenhauer.

Mary Sibilla, wife of Peter Knop (Knopp, Knob, Knobb).

The daughter Susanna Maria (Mary) was the wife of Christian Gruber, son of the immigrant Henry Gruber that settled as early as 1735 in what is now North Heidelberg township, Berks county, Pa., and was one of the founders of St. Daniel's (Corner) Church, in Heidelberg township, Berks county, about a mile northward of Robesonia. (See also Quarterly, Oct., 1920, p. 34).

The daughter Elizabeth is supposed to have been the wife of Paul Lingel (Lengel) who with Samuel Bayer were the executors of Andrew Beyer's will, which was made Aug. 16, 1766.

The son Abraham is buried at St. Daniel's (Corner) Church, referred to above, the tombstone showing: Abraham Bayer, born May 2, 1747; died June 11, 1832; in wedlock with his wife Anna Barbara 41 years 10 months; 3 sons and 8 daughters. His wife's tombstone shows that she was born Jan'y 21, 1748, and died Feb. 18, 1812.

The son John Peter is also buried at St. Daniel's (Corner) Church, tombstone showing: Peter Bayer, born Oct. 27, 1741, and died March 29, 1784.

The Little Tulpehocken Church record† shows also children of a John Beyer as follows:

†Published in Notes and Queries, Annual volume, 1899, by Dr. W. H. Egle.

1742; bap. July 11, 1742; sponsor was John Adam Schroff.

From the tombstones in the burial ground at the Little Tulpehocken Church, there is also found the following information:

Hieronymus (Jerome) Bayer, born May 11, 1747; died Feb. 14, 1798.

Christina Boyer, shown on the tombstone of her husband John Henrich (b. Nov. 14, 1784; d. Oct. 6, 1859) as his first wife, married Aug. 10, 1806; he having married (2) Anna Maria Kiene, in 1815.

In the old baptismal records of St. Daniel's (Corner) Church, in Heidelberg Township, Berks County, Pa., known originally as the "Lutheran Congregation in Heidelberg," there are found the following records pertaining to the Bayer (Boyer) family:

Children of Henry Beyer:

John George, born Aug. 2, 1790; bap. March 20, 1791; sponsors were George Numann (Newman) and wife.

Children of Jacob Beyer:

In addition to what has been given on the first page of this Boyer information, the following are obtained from inscriptions of tombstones at St. Daniel's (Corner) Church:

Barbara Bayer, born Aug. 28, 1749; died April 2, 1791.

Catharine Bayer, born May 17, 1769; died July 27, 1859; in wedlock with John Ernst 50 years; 9 children.

Mary Magdalene Bayer, born April 27, 1782; died June 21, 1861; daughter of Abraham Bayer, son of the immigrant Andreas Beyer; wife of Benjamin Stump, grandson of the immigrant John Stump who settled on the Tulpehocken Creek near Bernville, Pa., in what is now the northern extremity of North Heidelberg Township, Berks County, Pa.

In the burial grounds at Bernville, Berks County, Pa., are tombstones showing the following information:

Sybilla Boyer, born March 22, 1780; died Dec. 2, 1866; married Henry Filbert, born April 9, 1775; died April 27, 1850.

In the graveyard at Millersburg, Bethel Township, Berks county, Pa., there is shown on the tombstone of Franz Umbenhauer: born Oct. 23, 1751; died March 31, 1812; wife's name Anjelge Beyer; married 40 years less 2 months; 7 sons, 2 daughters. His wife was the daughter of the immigrant Andreas Beyer, her name being found also as Ann Engle and Angelina.

In the Register of Wills' Office, Reading, Berks County, Pa., there is recorded the will of a Henry Beier of Tulpehocken Township (signs in German, Henrich Beier), dated Feb. 22, 1757, and letters testamentary granted April 22, 1757, Benjamin Spicker named as executor. The will shows a wife Salome, and children: George (oldest son), Asahel, Henry, Anne, Mary, Samuel, Susannah, Anne Catharine, Anne Magdalene, Salome, Catharine Barbara, and John Jacob, the last two minors.

From Rev. John Gaspar Stoever's Record of Baptisms and Marriages, published in Notes & Queries, Annual Volume 1896, by Dr. W. H. Egle, there is found the following information:

Married, Albinus Beyer and Anna Maria Steutz, Codorus, Sept. 23, 1740.

Child of Albinus Beyer (Codorus):

Maria Sophia Margaret, born Aug. 7, 1741; bap. Sept. 27, 1741; sponsors were John Nicolaus Kau and wife.

Married July 1, 1733, Andreas

Beyer and Susanna Catarina Berghmer, Providence.

On July 15, 1733, Andreas Beyer and wife are shown as sponsors for a daughter of Valentine Bernhaussel (Quitapahilla).

(This Andreas Beyer must be a different person from the one buried at the Little Tulpehocken Church.)

Married July 24, 1757, Asahel Bayer and Maria Eva Spieler, Atolhoe. (Atolhoe, found also as Antolheough, Andolhea, Altalaha, etc., is what is now Rehrersburg, Berks County, Pa., and vicinity.)

Married March 10, 1754, John Henry Beyer and Salome Suess, Tulpehocken.

Maria Salome, born Nov. 2, 1754; bap. Nov. 10, 1754; sponsors were John Meyer and wife Anna Maria.

John Jacob, born Dec. 12, 1756; bap. Jan'y 8, 1757; sponsors were George Gaertner and Wife.

(These three persons named Henry or John Henry Bayer or Beyer appear to be different persons.

Henry Beyer (or Bayer) is shown as sponsor in the following families: Albrecht Strauss (1737) and Andreas Krafft (1737) both of Northkill; George Meyer (1742) of Lebanon; Philip Gebhardt (1745), Martin Stuep (Stupp, 1746), and John Philip Schneider (1746), of Tulpehocken. —Probably not the same person in all cases.

John Jacob Beyer and wife Margaret are shown as sponsors April 21. 1734, for a son of Chirstoph Labengeiyer (Swatara).

Married June 29, 1760, Michael Bayer and Catherine Elizabeth Haag, Bern. On the day of their marriage they were sponsors for a daughter (Catherine Elizabeth) of George Adam Geiss and wife Anna Barbara (Haag), Northkill.

In the church record of the Lutheran Congregation at the Quittapahilla, known as "The Hill Church" or "Bergkirche," about three miles westward of Lebanon, Labanon County, Pa., as published in Notes & Queries, Annual Volume 1898, by Dr. W. H. Egle, there is found the following information:

On pages 88 and 193, Vol. 1, 3d Series, Notes & Quaries, by Dr. W. H. Egle, published in 1895, there is found some interesting Boyer information, as follows:

John Boyer, of Harrisburg, died prior to 1793. He came from the neighborhood of Bethlehem, and in his youth had been in captivity among the Indians. His children were:

John, was a weaver, removed to Reading.

Elizabeth, married George Zeigler.

Catharine, married Andrew Kepner, of Reading.

Mary, died at Harrisburg; married Jacob Bretz; died 1845 at Carlisle; buried at Harrisburg; parents of Major Jacob Bretz, of Carlisle.

Jacob Bretz, senior, son of John Wendel and Christiana Bretz, was born at Germantown, Pa., on Oct. 22, 1772. He died at Carlisle, Pa., in April, 1845, aged 72 years. He married, at Harrisburg, Mary Ann Boyer, born at Reading, Pa., in 1781, and died at Harrisburg, on Feb. 28, 1830. Both she and her husband are interred in the Harriburg cemetery. Their children were Elizabeth, Mary, John, Lewis, Jacob, Joseph, Amelia, William, Catherine, and George-Ziegler, the latter a prominent citizen of Brooklyn, N. Y. The grandfather of Mrs. Bretz resided near Bethlehem, Pa., where he had located at an early period. During the Indian war he was killed in his field by the savages, and his wife in the house, while a son and a daughter were taken captive. The latter married an Indian and remained among the red men; the former, after seven years captivity, was returned to Philadelphia with other prisoners, and sent to Reading. Here Mr. Boyer (John Boyer) married and lived to a ripe old age. He left four children:

John Valentine.

Catharine, married Andrew Kepner.

Elizabeth, married George Ziegler.

Mary Ann, married Jacob Bretz.

*SCRAPS FROM AN OLD WASHINGTON CEMETERY.

About 1897 I noted the following items in an old Presbyterian Graveyard in Georgetown, D. C., which was then practically abandoned and neglected, and overgrown with weeds and brush; and soon after this the bodies and tombstones were removed and the graveyard as such passed out of existence.

It was at the northeast corner of 34th Street and Volta Place, the church and yard occupying practically the entire block; and the space is leveled off and used as a municipal play ground. The epitaphs showed that most of the deaths occurred between 1800 and 1870.

The four items I noted were:

(1) "Departed this life on the 8th of August, 1844, Mary Magdalene, wife of the late John Peter Bohrer, and mother of Dr. B. S. Bohrer, at the advanced age of 97 years."

(2) John Hyde, died Oct. 25, 1807.

(3) John Haydock, died Apr. 13, 1807 (with a long, hopeless epitaph).

(4) John Stafford, died June 22. 1856.

When I revisited the site on Sept. 22, 1921, I noted the following part of an epigraph on a heavy broken marble slab recently dug out near the northeast corner of the yard:

"In the vault beneath are deposited the remains of
....INIAN MAGRUDER
....3rd March, 1823, Aged 53
..... noblest work of God"

The Va. Gazette, Williamsburg, June, 26, 1779.

At a court of enquiry held at Williamsburg the 4th of June 1779, by order of Thomas Marshall, Esq.; Colonel of the State regiment of artillery, and commander of the troops of the Commonwealth, on the conduct of Major Thomas Mathews of the state artillery, respecting the evacuation of Fort Nelson on the 10th of May, his retreat subsequent thereto, and the measures he took to secure the publick stores, at the request of the said Major Thomas Mathews: Lieutenant Colonel Muter, President, Captains Charles Porterfield, Elias Edmonds, Charles de Klauman, and Samuel Crawley.

The court having considered the facts as stated by the several persons examined, are unanmiously of openion, that the evacuation of Fort Nelson by Major Mathews on the 10th of May was necessary, and that Major Mathews in his retreat, and the removal of the publick stores, acquitted himself as a judicious, attentive, and brave officer.

several subjects of the above inquiry, I do most heartily concur in opinion with the court.

The members of the National Genealogical Society, in common with Prof. Faust's numerous friends at Cornell University and throughout the literary world, are glad to extend most cordial congratulations and best wishes.

The editor of the Quarterly extends special personal congratulations to the high contracting parties. He has been associated with Prof. Faust in all the difficult phases of the completion of the published "Lists of Swiss Emigrants in the Eighteenth Century to the American Colonies." Vol. 1, and is glad to bear testimony to Dr. Faust's high ability in numerous fields of research and teaching, and to the painstaking accuracy and great value of his work.

The hope is here expressed that this eventful trip to Europe may not only result in great happiness, but also that it may make available newly discovered and important historical and genealogical treasures from the European archives. G. M. B.

ERROR IN PAGINATION

In making up the April, 1921, issue of the Quarterly the editor unfortunately overlooked the fact that a new volume then began. The pagination of the January issue was continued, hence Volumes IX and X will be continuously paged, and a note to this effect will appear in index for Vol. X.

From National Intelligencer, Washington, D. C., September 27, 1815.

"On 6th instant, in Powhatan County, Va., Col. William Skipwith, an officer of the Revolution. He particularly distinguished himself at the siege of York Town."

From the Same, Feb. 4, 1835.

"Another Revolutionary Hero Gone! Died at his residence in Abbeville District, South Carolina, on Saturday night, the 17th ulto., of the prevailing influenza, Major Andrew Hamilton, in the 94th year of his age, which is ascertained from the record and certificate of the Rev. John Craig, who baptised him on the 19th July, 1741, in Augusta county, State of Virginia, his birthplace. Major Hamilton at an early period emigrated from Virginia and settled in South Carolina within the limits of Abbeville District, where he continued to reside until death."

This issue of the Quarterly, October, 1921, will at once be followed by the issue for January, 1922, thus completing Volume X.

The large amount of authentic genealogical facts therein presented will doubtless compensate for the unavoidable delay in publication.

Subscribers and members can materially assist in extending the work of the Society by forwarding additional subscriptions for the Quarterly and memberships in the National Genealogical Society.

CENSUS OF VOTERS, FAIRFAX COUNTY, VIRGINIA, 1744.

Especial attention is directed to the important Census of Va. voters for 1744, reproduced upon p 103 of this issue, as part of Land Records, Fairfax Co., Va., beginning 1742. Mrs. E. K. Woodward spent many months in digesting the Wills and Land Records of the large portion of Virginia embraced in Fairfax Co., 1742, etc. The importance of the record is deemed sufficient explanation for giving so much of it in one issue. The value will be largely enhanced by the full index shortly to be issued.

Contributed by Mrs. Ida M. Schaaf (Mrs. Edward), St. Mary's, Mo.

"The First Book of Baptisms, and Marriages, Copies," 1760-1781, published in Quarterly Vol. V, No. 1, pp. 1-3; No. 2, pp. 24-27, 1781-1796; No. 3, 38-41, 1796-1815; No. 4, 55-62, 1815-1837.

St. Mary's Mo., Jan. 30th, 1916.

The additional records I am sending to the National Genealogical Society are those of the Church of Ste. Genevieve at Ste Genevieve, Mo. Ste Genevieve was founded about 1735, or earlier, by the French from across the Mississippi at Fort Chartres and Kaskaskia. There was no church there until 1759 (at which time the records commence) but the Catholic priest went from Kaskaskia to baptize, bury the dead and perform marriages, and these records are among the Kaskaskia records, which are in possession of the Jesuits of St. Louis University. The first church was of log and called the church of St. Joachim. The Mississippi river overflowed so badly that it was found necessary to move the town to a higher spot, which was done in 1785 and 1786, after an unusually bad overflow of the river. The church built in the new town was called the church of Ste. Genevieve and was also of logs. The first pastor was Father Hilaire and after him Father Gibault (I have noted the date of first entry made by him, Oct 4th, 1768), after him a monk who was called St. Peter (St. Pierre) and again Father Gibault. Father Gibault gave to Clark much assistance at the time he took Kaskaskia and was instrumental in reconciling the people to American rule. When France lost the territory east of the Mississippi to England, many of the inhabitants, not wishing to live under English rule, moved to Ste. Genevieve from Fort Chartres and Kaskaskia. The church belonged to the diocese of Quebec in Canada. In 1815 Father Henri Pratte (who had been born in the parish) became the pastor, succeeding Father Maxwell, who died in the parish. The church then belonged to the diocese of Bardstown, Ky. Father Pratte enlarged the church and made many improvements. He died Sept 1st, 1822. After that the church was looked after by the Lazarus priests from the Seminary at Bardstown, principally by Father Rosatti who afterward became the first bishop of St. Louis. The church was again enlarged and the logs replaced by stone. I cannot give at this moment the date of this enlargement. Again, in 1879-'80 it was enlarged, this time of brick. The outside walls were removed and pillars placed to support the roof, then new walls of brick were built about twenty feet on each side and in front, thus making the church this much larger but retaining the old roof and floor. This old floor still remains. The original rock sacristy was left standing. This sacristy was torn away and a new sanctuary and sacristy built, this addition being finished in 1913. All these improvements made on the original church and the pillars of the present church mark the lines of the old rock church. The rock church was built and finished in 1836-37. Father Pratte was buried under the choir of the church. In 1837 his body was exhumed and re-buried under the new choir. In 1912 the present pastor had the ashes again removed and placed under the sanctuary. His resting place was identified by a pewter coffin plate which bore his name, age and date of his death. The resting place of many others who had been buried under the church were also identified in this way. Francois Valle, the last Commandant under Spanish rule (my great grandfather), his wife and one of their children were also buried under the Commandant's pew. Francois Valle, Sr., the first Commandant under Spanish rule, died and was buried in the old town; the exact spot of the cemetery can be located. I know every inch of these old places; my people have been there since the town was settled and came from Kaskaskia.

* Copied from the original in possession of Mrs. Louisa (Brown) Gridley, dau. of Mary Priscilla Biggs, of 3443 14th St., N. W., Washington, D. C. The parentage of John Biggs, Sr., and of Priscilla (Wilson) Biggs is much desired—notify the editor.

† County record gives Nov. 20, 1782.

Most sincerely,
Ida M. Schaaf (Mrs. Edward).

"GRANDCHILDREN OF THE PASSENGERS ON THE MAYFLOWER."

Mr. Algernon Aikin Aspinwall, Historian of the District of Columbia Society of Mayflower Descendants, very kindly and very carefully prepared authentic information for the use of The National Genealogical Society Quarterly. This valuable Mayflower material was published as follows, under the above title:

Quarterly, Vol. IV, No. 3, Oct., 1915, pp. 37-41;
Quarterly, Vol. IV, No. 4, Jan., 1916, pp. 54-57;
Quarterly, Vol. V, No. 1, April, 1916, pp. 6-10;
Quarterly, Vol. V, No. 2, July, 1916, pp. 20-23.

"The Mayflower Passengers," a valuable summary of Mayflower facts also by the same eminent authority, was prepared for the Quarterly and was published in Vol. VI, Oct., 1917, No. 3, pp. 56-57. All of the above mentioned materials have had very favorable, and very extensive use. Unfortunately neither the articles, nor the magazines containing the same, appear to have been copyrighted, and in a sense they were "in the public domain."

Sec. 7, Copyright Law, says: "That no copyright shall subsist in the original text of any work which is in the public domain," etc. It is further taken for granted that any person or organization asking for the copyright privileges bases such claim on their own work.

The editor has a circular recently sent to a library containing the following, together with the first and second editions of the matters therein mentioned:

"The Bureau of Military and Civic Achievement has prepared (italics by the writer) in pamphlet form an authentic list of the Mayflower Descendants for two generations subsequent to the landing; with All Obtainable Dates of Birth, Deaths, and Marriages, Including the Names of the Families Into Which the Daughters and Granddaughters Married." A careful comparison of the Quarterly publications in 1915, 1916, of the Aspinwall articles will convince the most skeptical that the "Bureau" has appropriated the said materials, but without including in its "all obtainable" the references to localities, places of residence, etc., as given by Mr. Aspinwall—its publication appears as an abridgement. Unconsciously, but obviously, the republication appropriates some characteristic phrases placed in the Aspinwall manuscript by both Mr. Aspinwall and by Mr. Frank Sylvester Parks, then editor of the Quarterly. Mr. Parks has himself called attention to these convincing words, and a letter is herewith reproduced from Mr. Aspinwall showing his views upon the unauthorized use of his materials without the slightest credit to the Quarterly, or to him as the obvious author; also a later letter containing further proof.

Feb. 17, 1922, Robert E. Landis, Washington, D. C., under oath, in an unlimited claim for the copyright privileges (See Copyright Cl. A., No. 657, 540) made application in behalf of "The Bureau of Military and Civic Achievement," John T. Landis, Director General, and in support submitted a 40 pp. pamphlet entitled "Mayflower Descendants and Their Marriages For Two Generations After the Landing," second edition. The copyright claim is placed obscurely on page 40 of this pamphlet. The first edition is a pp. 20 pamphlet, claiming copyright on the third page of the cover, but not so officially claimed, as reported at the office of the Registrar of Copyright.

This instance of marked, but very questionable, "Civic Achievement" has been brought to the attention of the Registrar who replies under date of March 8, '22: "I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 4, stating that material taken from the National Genealogical Society Quarterly has been used in a publication supposed to have been made in behalf of Robert E. Landis.

A possible misappropriation of literary property, or an infringement of a claim of copyright, is not a matter of which the Copyright Office can take cognizance. It is a matter wholly within the jurisdiction of the courts," etc.

Inasmuch as copies of the Quarterly containing the Aspinwall Mayflower materials can yet be supplied in a more complete form by the Librarian of the National Genealogical Society; and, as no proposition for authority to republish these materials which have appeared solely in our Quarterly has been made to any person connected with the N. G. S. or to the author, Mr. Aspinwall, the unfairness of this appropriation by the "Bureau," without the slightest credit being given, is most startling. Especial attention is invited to the following letters:

"The Concord, Washington, D. C.,

DEAR DOCTOR BRUMBAUGH:

I am just in receipt of yours of yesterday, and replying, I have to state that I have never given my consent to Mr. Landis, nor to anyone else, to publish or to use the articles entitled "Grandchildren of the Mayflower" prepared by me, which was published in the National Genealogical Society Quarterly, nor have I been asked by anybody for permission to use the same.

I spent much time in preparing the article, and it is the only one which has ever appeared in print concerning the matter in question.

I regret exceedingly that the article has been pirated by someone, and offered by him for sale.

Very sincerely,
ALGERNON A. ASPINWALL,
Historian, Society of Mayflower Descendants, District of Columbia."

The Concord, Washington, D. C.
March 14, 1922.

DEAR DR. BRUMBAUGH:

I have read the letter to you of March 10, '22, from Mr. John T. Landis, and have also carefully examined the pamphlet entitled "The Mayflower Passengers, Their Children and Grandchildren," and the later

679825

"Mayflower Descendents and Their Marriages For Two Generations After Landing (alleged second edition), issued by the Bureau of Military and Civic Achievement, Washington, D. C.

Of course I make no claim that the matter contained in my article entitled "Grandchildren of The Passengers on The Mayflower" was obtained from original research by me. Most of it was secured and collated from various sources during my long service as the Historian of the Society of Mayflower Descendants, District of Columbia. Some of it, however, was secured by me after a personal search of the town and probate records at Plymouth, Mass. Mr. Landis claims also to have collected the matter in his publication from various books named by him in his letter to you.*

An examination of the two artirles, however, will show that he certainly used my article throughout. No two persons conducting independently a research on the same subject could possibly use the same phraseology such as exists throughout both articles. Moreover, in the first family I accidently omitted two children in one family. These children are also omitted from that family in the alleged Landis production—a singular coincidence!

I invite attention also to the fact that when I prepared the article for the Quarterly, 1915, 1916, it was then supposed that there were but twenty-two passengers of the Mayflower who left descendants and I so stated. It has since been discovered that still another passenger† also left descendants. Mr. Landis' publication, recently published, however, gives the number as twenty-two. Surely if he has been making researches he would have discovered this fact, and would have given their children and grandchildren. Further comment is unnecessary.

Very sincerely,

ALGERNON A. ASPINWALL,
Historian, Society of Mayflower Descendents, District of Columbia."

The lengthy letter from Mr. Landis, dated Mch. 10, gives 66 Mayflower references,* admits "consultation" of the Quarterly, and says: "I have not usurped any rights of yours, the Quarterly, nor Mr. Aspinwall. And I regret that you should have failed to recognize that I have as much right to publish such a compilation as any one * * *. My son had nothing to do with the compilation." He further says " * * * if I had not intended my publication as an authority itself then the numerous references above mentioned would not have been investigated, consulted and compared, but some list would have been reprinted, and accepted for what it was worth and its source cited, or acknowledgment made for it."

The editor is delighted to say that a further Mayflower article upon Richard Moore,† mentioned above by Mr. Aspinwall will shortly appear exclusively in the Quarterly, and it will be copyrighted. G. M. B.

We understand that a very general opinion prevails among our fellow citizens in the western countries that the Federal troops never will march against them. This unfortunate and mistaken notion may be fairly ascribed as one of the principal causes of their obstinancy in the present struggle.

Though some of the leaders of these deluded people have already come in, and accepted pardon within the time limit by Government, yet others have not done so. The news of the actual march of the Federal army will undoubtedly produce a considerable alteration in their opinions and they will begin to repent when too late.

As the expense of this armament will be very considerable, it appears to be the general opinion that some sacrifices must be made, not only for the sake of holding out an example in future, but that the U. S. may be reimbursed for the waste of money and the time of individuals. Fifteen thousand men, estimating the value of their labour at $1 per day amounts in 50 days for 2 months only to $9,-000.00."
